Hill House B&B in Asheville, NC, is looking for someone to work from May through October. The job could become permanent after that.

The job would be doing some of everything -- cooking, serving, taking reservations, social media, grocery shopping, administration, housecleaning, yardwork, handyman work, and guest concierge. Along with salary, there would be a housing allowance included. Total compensation package would be around $20/hour.

Qualifications include basic cooking and computer skills, individual initiative, strong time management ability, good communication, and a strong desire to work in the hospitality industry.

Hill House is a 20-years-old, 10-rooms inn. It has been under its present ownership for 5 years. Occupancy during the May-to-October period is about 80%.
